A reminder that you are invited to submit written feedback and questions. We regret that we are unable to reply to you individually. We will group questions by theme and do our best to answer them in the meeting. A written summary will be written up after the meeting and posted on the websites.

Trustees would like to ask you these specific questions

To ensure that Othona is cherished and valued in 10 years time

What does it need to do more of?

What does it need to do less of?

What would you like to see us experiment with?

Any other observations that you wish to make?

Please submit your feedback and questions to communitysecretary@othona.org by 20th September.

The AGM will start promptly at 10.30am. Please log on a good 5 minutes before in case of technical problems.

Those who are subscribing Members have the opportunity of voting for the Treasurer and Community Secretary, we will use the raise hand function in Zoom.

As last year there will be an opportunity to stay online and talk with others at the end of the meeting.

Looking forward to seeing you,
The Trustees The Othona Community 277843
